

Ralph Lee Johnson Memorial Scholarship

Dear RHS Senior,

Thank you for applying for the Ralph Lee Johnson Memorial Scholarship. This Scholarship was established to honor the memory of my father. He was a truly amazing man who dedicated his life to enriching the lives of all who knew him. He was a truly selfless and honorable man who believed that hard work and dedication would make a man or woman successful. He also believed in being kind to your fellow neighbor and reaching out with a helping hand whenever someone was in need. The scholarship will be given to a graduating senior who will be attending college or trade school. The student must be a well-rounded student who is successful academically, but also is involved in school sponsored activities/clubs, volunteers in their community, and exemplifies honorable character. Each student is to complete an application with grade and activity verification as well as a written essay. My father was an honorable man and he passed that trait on to his children as well as his grandchildren. As a result we hope to pay it forward and honor him. Good luck to you in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Joy Johnson Engelbrecht

Awards/Honors:

Counselor Verification:

I certify that the information provided in the application is accurate to the best of my knowledge

Gail Warschak

Essay

(The Essay is a VERY IMPORTANT part of this scholarship)

In 200 words or less write an essay that answers the following questions:

What makes a person honorable? How do you exemplify this character quality?

Do you feel it is important to be honorable? How do you feel this character quality impacts the world around you?

Please type your response in Times New Roman 14 point font double space. Be sure your name appears in the upper right hand corner and title your essay. Attach your essay to your application and submit by the submission date as no late applications will be considered. As stated above, the essay portion of this application is very important.